More homes, great services, better lives

A Snapshot Of What the Conference Will Cover:

- Technology has radically improved the quality of life for some people with Disabilities and is poised to change lives for many
- From blue-sky thinking to new products to meet needs
- The challenges that technology presents in financial terms, and the challenges that it creates in terms of values and ethics
- Technology does not recognise national boundaries - we can all learn a lot from other countries and cultures
- Exhibitions

Breaking the Barriers between Stakeholders

Aims Of The Conference

This conference is supported by the ImPaCT in Europe project which aims to raise awareness of the benefits of Person Centred Technology. PCT can substantially improve quality of life and open up potential employment opportunities for the individual.

The conference programme has been designed to deliver a demanding agenda bringing together key people from across Europe to demonstrate how assistive technology can significantly support independence for people with disabilities in a person centred way.

Who Should Attend

- Providers of services to people with disabilities
- Commissioners of services for people with disabilities
- Developers of assistive technology and telecare
- Service users of assistive technology
- Senior practitioners in services to people with disabilities
- Academics involved in developing ICT for people with disabilities

Venue and Location

The Britannia Nottingham Hotel is perfect for exploring all the sights of Nottingham, situated near to Nottingham Castle, Trent Bridge Cricket Ground, Victoria Shopping Centre and the Nottingham City business district, proving an ideal location for both business and pleasure. The hotel is both modern and comfortable. The Hotel Bar is a popular meeting place with guests and locals alike, while the restaurant serves a fine selection of food throughout the day.

The hotel has the best conference and dining facilities in Nottingham with an abundance of facilities and vast public areas. The Business Centre incorporates extensive conference and banqueting facilities and has its own entrance and reception. The hotel also has easy access to parking (multi-storey car park opposite).

For more information about Nottingham and the surrounding area, go to: www.visitnottingham.com

Nottingham is incredibly easy to get to, being conveniently situated at the heart of the UK with excellent air, rail and road links. The proximity of the M1, A1, A52 and A46 means it is easily accessible by car, while speedy rail links run from Nottingham to much of the UK. London St Pancras is the Eurolink terminal and the mainline railway station to Nottingham (1 hour 45 minutes). Nottingham is served by East Midlands Airport and a number of budget airlines, which brings the city within easy reach of Scotland, Ireland and the rest of Europe's major cities, and is approximately 30 minutes drive from the centre of Nottingham.
